

IN THE CIRCLE OF SOCIETY

BELGIAN LEGATION
SCENE OF WEDDING

Miss Kathleen Clayton to Become Bride of Arthur
Grant-Duff.

CEREMONY THIS AFTERNOON

Bride Is Daughter of Former Ambassador to Mexico
Clayton.

Miss Kathleen Clayton, daughter of Gen. Powell Clayton, former American ambassador to Mexico, will be married to Arthur Grant-Duff, British minister to Cuba, at 4 o'clock this afternoon, in the Belgian legation, on H street, the wife of the Belgian minister being her sister, with whom she spends a part of each winter. The house is beautifully decorated with palms and white chrysanthemums, a bower of green, dotted with the white flowers, being arranged in the drawing room as a background for the bride.

The Rev. Ernest C. Smith, rector of St. Thomas' Episcopal Church, will perform the ceremony.

The bride will be attended by Miss Grace Thompson, of St. Louis, and the bridesmaid will have for her best man Ronald C. Lindsay, of the British embassy staff, and General Clayton will give his daughter in marriage. Because of mourning for the recent death of the bridegroom's father, Sir Mounts Stuart Grant-Duff, the company to witness the ceremony will be quite small and informal.

Mr. Grant-Duff will take his bride for a trip through Virginia, probably for a short stay at the Hot Springs, and next month will sail for England, where they will spend the winter. Mr. Grant-Duff will not present his credentials to Cuba until the early spring.

This wedding will be a culmination of a romance of several years' standing, in the diplomatic circle in Mexico, when the bridegroom of today was British charge d'affaires there, and the father of the bride was the American ambassador.

The members of the British embassy and the Belgian legation staffs, the relatives of the bride and a very few personal friends will be the only guests at the wedding.

General Merzeta, the minister from Persia, who spent the summer in Washington, going to Canada about the middle of October for a month's vacation, returned to Washington last week. While in Canada General Merzeta was taken ill, but since his return to Washington has entirely recovered.

Representative Spencer Blackburn returned Saturday to his apartment in the Highlands, where he is spending the winter. He has remained there since his return from spending the summer with his parents, Col. and Mrs. M. M. Parker, in the North.

Mr. and Mrs. Shattuck are the guests of Mrs. E. L. Keen, of the Highlands.

Mrs. Allen, wife of General Allen, Mrs. Johnston and Mrs. Allen's daughter, Miss Allen, left Washington this morning for Saranac Lake, N. Y.

Mrs. Loe, wife of Lieutenant Loe, is the guest of Major and Mrs. Russell during her husband's absence in Cuba.

Miss Hardwick, of the Highlands, has as her guest, Miss Roberta Roberts, of Alabama.

Livingston L. Young, owing to the death of Mr. Bowdler's mother, recalls the invitations to the marriage of his daughter, Ellen-Lee, to H. W. Bowdler, for Wednesday, November 21, 1906. The wedding will take place on the same date, and will be witnessed only by the immediate families.

Rear Admiral Frank Courtis, U. S. N., retired, and Mrs. Courtis will spend the winter in Washington and have taken apartments in the Calro for the season.

Capt. Albert F. Dixon, U. S. N., and Mrs. Dixon have taken apartments in the Westmoreland for the season.

Mrs. McLean and Miss McLean, wife and daughter of Commander Walter McLean, U. S. N., have leased their house in O street for the season and will spend the winter in Japan.

Mrs. Nancy Robinson, wife of Commander Robinson, will spend the winter in Washington and has taken apartments in the Buckingham.

Capt. H. L. Hawthorne, U. S. A., who has been detailed to duty at the War College, has arrived in Washington from the Presidio, California.

Mrs. Cornelia Dyas White, of New York, will arrive in Washington this afternoon, and be the guest for several days of Mrs. Wallbridge, on Lamont street. She will appear with her sisters, Mrs. Dyas Standish and Miss Louise Dyas, in a piano, song, and violin recital in the hall of the Arlington Hotel tomorrow afternoon for the benefit of the Nurses' Home. The matronesses, Mrs. Henry H. Hodgkins, Mrs. William H. Hoek, Mrs. Gardner G. Hubbard, Mrs. James Lowndes, Mrs. John H. Magruder, Mrs. Hendon H. McKim, Mrs. M. Van Anten Mills, Mrs. Charles W. Needham, Mrs. Lewis E. Payson, Mrs. Charles M. Richardson, Mrs. Henry G. Satterlee, Mrs. D. K. Shute, Mrs. Frederick W. True, and Mrs. Henry C. Yarrow.

No Pain

Is so severe that it cannot be relieved with Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. It is the only infallible remedy known for the relief and cure of every kind of pain, headache, toothache, neuralgia, rheumatic pains, backache, sideache, menstrual pains, muscular pains, stomachache, toothache, etc.

If you are subject to aches and pains of any kind, take when you feel the first symptom coming on. You will be entirely relieved from the attack. They are pleasant little tablets, but they do the business—besides, they are absolutely harmless.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills

I have used Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills for three years, and they never fail to relieve my nervous headache and neuralgia. I have learned to get the best of the attacks by taking a tablet in advance. RACHAEL J. JOHNSON, Albuquerque, N. M.

If first package does not benefit you, tell your druggist, and he will refund money.

25 doses, 25 cents. Never sold in bulk.

ARTHUR GRANT-DUFF,

British Minister to Cuba, Son of the Late Sir Mounts Stuart
Grant-Duff.

MISS KATHLEEN CLAYTON,

Who Will Be Married This Afternoon in the Belgian Legation to Arthur Grant-Duff, British Minister to Cuba.

Miss Hinckley's Luncheon
Opens New Dining Room

Mrs. Robert Hinckley entertained a company yesterday at luncheon, in her home in Sixteenth street. Mrs. Hinckley added a large, new and beautiful dining-room to her house this summer, which will be completed in a few weeks. She is now out of mourning, and will again take her place in society. Miss Gladys Hinckley is again in school, and will be a debutante, two years hence.

Mrs. James F. Barbour and her daughter, Mrs. Broome, and Mrs. Jane Rickard left yesterday for a short visit to New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Bell, who were in Warrenton last week, for the wedding of their niece, Miss Aileen Kerr, and Charles McIlvaine Harris, are now in New York, and will not return until the middle of the week, when they will take possession of their city home in Connecticut avenue. Their country place was closed when they left for Warrenton. Miss Grace Bell has just arrived in England, where she is to join a party of English friends and go to India for the winter.

Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

as Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

as Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

as Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

as Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

as Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

as Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

as Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

as Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

as Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

as Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

as Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

as Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

as Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

as Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

as Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

as Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

as Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

as Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

as Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

as Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

as Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

as Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

as Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

as Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

as Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

as Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

as Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

as Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

as Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

as Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

as Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

as Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

as Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

as Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

as Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

as Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

as Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

as Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

as Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

as Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

as Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

as Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

as Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

as Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Pilot, of New York, who was known in Washington

Clipping of Phone Cable
Presents Legal Problem

District Attorney to Decide for Police Where Company Has Right to String
Its Wires.

The Police Department was presented with a legal problem yesterday, which it deemed advisable to take up with the District Attorney's office this morning. Before taking any action in the matter, the question involved the rights of overhead telephone and telegraph wires and cables, and whether the companies owning these lines have a right to stretch their cables over residences without the permission of the owners.

The Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company complained to the police that some one had clipped one of their cables over a building on Dumbarton avenue, between Thirtieth and Thirty-first streets. The cable was severed sometime Saturday night. Of Assistant Detective O'Brien, accompanied by one of the officials of the telephone company, visited the place and made an investigation. By measuring both ends of the cable, the detective learned over what building the cutting had been done.

Telephone wires frequently are clipped and the police pay no attention to the complaints, because of the admissions by the telephone company that the wires were fastened to a building without a permit. In these cases, the owners have a right to cut the wires down.

Difficult Problem.
The cable passing over Dumbarton avenue, however, was not fastened to any building, but ran close to the roof of an apartment house. Whether the telephone company has a right to string its cables where it pleases, so long as it does not hit them to buildings, or whether it has no right to cross ground owned by private parties, no matter how high in the air, without the consent of the owners, is a question the District Attorney will have to settle.

The cable in question contained many wires and the telephone service in that section of the city was crippled by the cutting for several hours yesterday. It is said that tinnies were working Saturday on the roof of the building where the cable was cut.

John H. Bagley, to William H. Wallace, of New York. The ceremony was held in Detroit October 20.

Miss Frances Dickinson, daughter of ex-Postmaster General Dickinson; Miss Gladys Newberry, niece of Assistant Secretary of the Navy Newberry, and Miss Marion Thurber, daughter of Henry T. Thurber, formerly secretary to President Cleveland, were the bridesmaids.

Capt. Sydney Amos Clemen and Mrs. Flora Louise Clemen, whose engagement recently was announced, were the guests of honor at a luncheon at Chevy Chase Club yesterday, with the Comptroller of the Currency and Mrs. William Barrett Ridgely as hosts. Among the guests were the British ambassador, Sir Mortimer Durand; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Addison, Captain Hebbinghaus and Mrs. Hebbinghaus; Mrs. L. M. Benet, Mrs. Frank Denny, Miss Catherine Williams, of Chicago; General Buchanan, Arthur Hay, and Miles Thompson.

Mal. H. S. Howe, U. S. A., and Mrs. Howe, who have been the guests of Major and Mrs. Ingalls in their home in the Berkshires, for the summer, have returned to Washington and will make their home in the Buckingham.

Herbert Steifel, of New York city, spent a few days here the past week with friends.

Alfred Kuntz, of this city, is spending a short while in his former home, New Orleans.

Rabbi Abram Simon, of the Eighth Street Temple, has prepared the following course of lectures for the next months: "The Art of Being a Man," "The Wanderer Jew," "The Call of the Blood," "Making for Good Will," "Pippa Passes." A cordial welcome is extended to the public to attend.

Mrs. Frederick Schwab, of Columbia road, entertained the Bridge Whist Club, Thursday afternoon, when prizes were won by Mrs. G. Wallerstein, Mrs. S. Rothchild, and Mrs. Arthur Baumgarten.

Mrs. R. Harris and daughter, Miss Maria V. Harris, have returned to New York city after spending the past week with Mrs. Phil King, at the Imperial. Mrs. Harris has taken an apartment at the Ritz-Carlton, Seventy-second street and Columbus avenue, for the winter.

Miss Minnette Switzer, of Vicksburg, Miss., is studying here at the Chevy Chase school.

Al Stern returned to New York city

The marriage is announced of Miss Frances Bagley, granddaughter of the late Governor Bagley and daughter of

after spending a few days here with his mother, Mrs. R. Stern, of Eighth street.

Mrs. Eugene Schwab, of Eighth street southeast, is entertaining the Bridge Whist Club this afternoon.

Miss Mervil Goldsmith has returned to Alexandria, Va., after being the guest of Miss Irene Sommers, of West Washington.

after spending a few days here with his mother, Mrs. R. Stern, of Eighth street.

Mrs. Eugene Schwab, of Eighth street southeast, is entertaining the Bridge Whist Club this afternoon.

Miss Mervil Goldsmith has returned to Alexandria, Va., after being the guest of Miss Irene Sommers, of West Washington.

after spending a few days here with his mother, Mrs. R. Stern, of Eighth street.

Mrs. Eugene Schwab, of Eighth street southeast, is entertaining the Bridge Whist Club this afternoon.

Miss Mervil Goldsmith has returned to Alexandria, Va., after being the guest of Miss Irene Sommers, of West Washington.

after spending a few days here with his mother, Mrs. R. Stern, of Eighth street.

Mrs. Eugene Schwab, of Eighth street southeast, is entertaining the Bridge Whist Club this afternoon.

Miss Mervil Goldsmith has returned to Alexandria, Va., after being the guest of Miss Irene Sommers, of West Washington.

after spending a few days here with his mother, Mrs. R. Stern, of Eighth street.

Mrs. Eugene Schwab, of Eighth street southeast, is entertaining the Bridge Whist Club this afternoon.

Miss Mervil Goldsmith has returned to Alexandria, Va., after being the guest of Miss Irene Sommers, of West Washington.

after spending a few days here with his mother, Mrs. R. Stern, of Eighth street.

Mrs. Eugene Schwab, of Eighth street southeast, is entertaining the Bridge Whist Club this afternoon.

Miss Mervil Goldsmith has returned to Alexandria, Va., after being the guest of Miss Irene Sommers, of West Washington.

after spending a few days here with his mother, Mrs. R. Stern, of Eighth street.

Mrs. Eugene Schwab, of Eighth street southeast, is entertaining the Bridge Whist Club this afternoon.

Miss Mervil Goldsmith has returned to Alexandria, Va., after being the guest of Miss Irene Sommers, of West Washington.

after spending a few days here with his mother, Mrs. R. Stern, of Eighth street.

Mrs. Eugene Schwab, of Eighth street southeast, is entertaining the Bridge Whist Club this afternoon.

Miss Mervil Goldsmith has returned to Alexandria, Va., after being the guest of Miss Irene Sommers, of West Washington.

after spending a few days here with his mother, Mrs. R. Stern, of Eighth street.

Mrs. Eugene Schwab, of Eighth street southeast, is entertaining the Bridge Whist Club this afternoon.

Miss Mervil Goldsmith has returned to Alexandria, Va., after being the guest of Miss Irene Sommers, of West Washington.

after spending a few days here with his mother, Mrs. R. Stern, of Eighth street.

Mrs. Eugene Schwab, of Eighth street southeast, is entertaining the Bridge Whist Club this afternoon.

Miss Mervil Goldsmith has returned to Alexandria, Va., after being the guest of Miss Irene Sommers, of West Washington.

after spending a few days here with his mother, Mrs. R. Stern, of Eighth street.

Mrs. Eugene Schwab, of Eighth street southeast, is entertaining the Bridge Whist Club this afternoon.

Miss Mervil Goldsmith has returned to Alexandria, Va., after being the guest of Miss Irene Sommers, of West Washington.

SLOCUM BRONZE SUSPECTS HELD

Junk Dealer Says Three Youths Tried to Dispose of Tablet.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—Three young men, giving their names as John Homer, nineteen years old, of Evergreen, Queens county; Gladys Dippel, eighteen years old, of Gates avenue, Brooklyn; and Harry Smith, eighteen years old, of Evergreen avenue, Brooklyn, were arrested by Detectives Undermark and Gallagher, of the Glendale station, who received word yesterday from a junk dealer of the attempted sale of the bronze tablet stolen Saturday from the Slocum monument. The youths were held today by Magistrate Conover in the Flushing police court for a further examination, and the police are trying to find the tablet.

The bronze, including the cost of the model and the casting, represented an outlay of $450, but as broken junk, the tablet would not bring six. It was marked and clipped in the stealing.

KILLED HIS COMPANION WHO GROWLED LIKE WOLF

POTTSVILLE Pa., Nov. 12.—Relations of James Aldrich received a telegram that he had been shot by one of his companions, John Rogers, as the result of a practical joke while on a hunting trip in Canada. Knowing that Rogers was a wolf, Aldrich stole outside the hunting lodge and imitated the howl of a wolf so well that Rogers seized his rifle and fired.

AGED WOMAN LOST;
HOUNDS IN PURSUIT

Clad Only in Thin Wrapper,
She Wanders Into the Woods.

PEABODY, Mass., Nov. 12.—A pack of bloodhounds, trained especially in the hunt for human beings, is today leading a party of searchers through the woods and swamps in this vicinity, in the hope of finding Mrs. Annie S. Smith, seventy-seven years old, who it is believed, has wandered to her death in some big hole or robbed by tramps.

She left her home on Thursday, and was clad only in a thin wrapper and had no other garments to protect her from the first blast of winter which has swept this section. It is known that Mrs. Smith had some money in her possession when she left home and upon this is based the theory that she may have been slain by tramps and her body concealed.

The police do not give full credence to this theory and they are inclined to the belief that the woman is lost in the woods.

GOLF FAVORED BY KAISER FOR HIS ARMY OFFICERS

BERLIN, Nov. 12.—The game of golf, which has attained much popularity in Germany, is likely to receive an impetus from the Kaiser's offer to allow the Berlin Golf Club the use of the beautiful grounds of the Admiralty, adjoining the royal estates at Potsdam. It is understood that the Kaiser hopes to interest German officers in the game.

21st ANNIVERSARY SALE

30 PER CENT DISCOUNT on ALL FURS

For One Week Only

During the present week I will offer my FINE FURS, embracing the newest and most desirable creations of the season, at 30 PER CENT DISCOUNT for cash. Every piece is of my own manufacture—the skins are the very choicest, being my personal selections.

This is an Anniversary Souvenir that will be of decided practical value to purchasers. If you desire furs of any description, this is your chance to secure them at the very beginning of the season, at a most substantial price-saving.

Remember, this 30 per cent discount is for ONE WEEK ONLY.

H. ZIRKIN,
821 Fourteenth St. N. W.

If we have one pleasure greater than to sell you it is to please you

Stumph & Lyford
631 to 639 Massachusetts Avenue.

New Dining-room Furniture

Our assortment of Dining Room Furniture offers a remarkable choice of style and design, and we have been fortunate enough to secure many surprisingly good values. We show many sets and single pieces in golden, fumed, or weathered oak, and in mahogany.

This four-piece set in weathered oak, carefully built and well decorated with buffet, large China Closet, 6-foot Table and 6-foot Side Table. Complete..... $65.00

Weathered Oak Extension Pedestal Table—well made—6-foot size. Price..... $16.00

Fumed Oak Dining Chair of this good design with rush seats—all quartered oak with wax finish. Price..... $6.00

Carpets Cleaned. Mattresses Remade.

Women's Suits

Regular $35 values
Regular $37.50 values
Regular $40 values

Such values as these are bound to create the most enthusiastic buying tomorrow. Several hundred women's high-class Tailored Suits are involved in this unusual underprice sale—representing this season's most fashionable models and finest materials. If you have any idea of buying a new suit this season, the advantages that are held out by this great offering should appeal to you and bring you here tomorrow to be fitted.

Tailored in clever fashion by the best men tailors, of high grade imported cloth. Broadcloths, Cheviots, and Serges. The models include the latest styles, Eton effects, fancy trimmed blouse and tight fitting hip lengths.

In black and all the favorite shades. All sizes in the lot.

Choice tomorrow of values usually sold at $35.00, $37.50, and $40.00, for $24.75.

9x12 Axminster Rugs
Well-known Alex Smith's Make—Regular Price, $25.00..... $19.75

More evidence of Goldenberg's leadership in rug selling. The fame of the Alex. Smith's Sons extends to every point of the country. Rugs bearing this firm's name stand for the highest quality rugs.

This lot consists of Alex. Smith's genuine Axminster Rugs, size 9x12 feet—full size for large rooms. The newest patterns designed for this season—showing handsome patterns in Oriental and floral effects.

Another remarkable bargain comes about thru the special purchase of a lot of 2500 genuine Axminster Rugs, closed out from the Hartford Carpet Mills at a concession. In a variety of the assortment of rich colorings and designs. Regular price, $25.00. Tomorrow at..... $1.98

9x12 Wilton Rugs, regularly $45.00, at..... $36.00
9x12 Tapestry Brussels Rugs, regularly $20.00..... $13.98
9x12 Body Brussels Rugs, regularly $35.00..... $25.00
9x12 Imperial Smyrna Rugs, regularly $30.00..... $21.00
9x12 Axminster Rugs, regularly $30.00..... $19.98
9x12 Duchesse Smyrna Rugs, regularly $25.00..... $16.98